she can sail away from old England on the time and yacht racing is a noble sport.

source for joy if it is kept clean.

old Volunteer Fire Department.

more than fifty cents each.

THE CLEANER.

never fail to hear them. An addition to the usual treat at Trinity Church will be given to Residents of Fifth avenue are complaining at the manner in which the stage borses are hard, and to see them slipping on the icy see the dress rehearsal of "Lafayette."

Everybody who goes to see the piece will have a chance to enjoy some rollicking fun. Little

Bob Morrell as a French cook is exceedingly amusing, and buzaune has a neck that knocks portions, cind in the garb of a "Hallelujah

Lassie, " were winning in the extreme, aithough tnat triple row of frills on the extremes was too worldly, too giddy for a Salvetion Army

I received a telegram from Buston telling me that Clyde Fitch's tlay, "Betty's Finish," was as great a success as "Lemaitre." It is a light comedy in one act, and I am sure it will b popular. But the play Mr. Fireh bas in hand cure a decent price and suitable royalty.

makes even his darkness luminous.

The Manhattan Athletic Club's " Ladies

Day " was a great success. All the fair friends countless, rushed to see the palace in which them. The lictures snowed very well. Miss broad swell of mid-oce in, with blazing sun

with a paletic-knife which at least command

attention, and has many qualities which cal for admiration. Miss a' Becket was the only woman-contributor, though there is nothing

The United Press Association will soon be held in a Sixth avenue L train the other morning. The car was crowded, and I, among others, was obliged to stand in the side aisle.

To my indescribable astonishment I saw Police (Communioner Martin snugly ensconced in seat slongside the Rev. Robt. Collyer. My frien

Jay Gould sat opposite this representative of Church and State, but each was ignorant of the other's injections proximity. Strange to in an article on finance. Dominie Collyct

The "wonderful" secret was imported from Germany by an American Cousul, who found many interested investors among local fortune resignations in the stated direction because of any windfall of wealth resulting from the new champagne process. I naturally conclude the all lacking in the scheme to make it a " go, enterprises, is cash.

"Little Sure Shot" dress.

___ Woman's Rights.

and she offered her hand right off.

throw the Philadelphos Tones,] "This woman's rights unsiness is going a little too far when they want to marry a fellow

From the West Shore.

Looking Forward

[Clahier and Furnisher, 1

calendars for 1891 with your new suit, sir?
Travers...No, thanks. You might put in one for 1892.

Tailor - Snall I put in one of our New Year's exhortation by the monk, Father Ignatius.

of invitations have been sent out.

never obtrudes that fact on one.

light overbead. It is an example of painting

the Jersey Lily's silly. O'Sullivan's huge pro

FEDNESDAY EVENING, DEC. 31.

ISCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD dent has happened and imperilled several families. To summon the Fire Department to put out a blazing water-tank sound like asking one to blow on a lump of ice to n were killed and a dozen wounded. The tally protect the poor.

L 31..... No. 10,725 red at the Post-Office at New York as second

WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1267 BROADWAY,

BUDDENSIECKERY.

ue tax.

being buried alive.

first of all.

HOLLAND YIELDS.

se was the co-operation of the Powers to

to a stigma greater than herself.

BEATTIE THE BLUFFER.

be streets, or failing this after six months'

trial, to clear off himself. In order to have

JUSTICE? OR REVENGE?

The reports from the Indian region an-

in any case, but a perfect surcease from the any injustice with their taking off. Even will be gently dropped. So long as this result is achieved the opponents of Mr.

America are antipodal. Not only theoretically, but as a matter of accomplished fact,

the man of the lowest social grade may rise to the highest here. In Russia the children of even the middle class are denied an education. Stepsiak should be received

The interest the fair sex takes in that mysterious haunt of their husbands and brothers, the club-house, is shown vividly by a "Ladies' Day " at a swell club. The Manhattan Athletic Club was crowded with their absence. As a rule they find out, to Victory last night, and if the time-honored old lady appreciates jovial company, she'll stay for many another such and heard without prejudice.

not make right even here. Let us be just, last act there is another charming dance set

Department, 150 Kant 125TH at.; Advertise-Now it is Senator Wolcorr who has re MILADRIPHIA, PA. - LEGGER BUILDING, 112 BOTTR STH ST. WASHINGTON-610 14TH ST. ONDON OFFICE-32 COCKSPUR ST., TRAFALGAR volted against the Force Bill. The Repub lican dictators are finding several cases of conscience in the party ranks,

To-day is the natal-hours of many i blooming resolution born only to die Another terrible example of neglect in Good resolutions are the bluff which Mr. iding was had in the falling-in of the roof Jekyli makes to Mr. Hyde. the five-story structure at First avenue and Twenty-ninth street, yesterday. Two allding was being reconstructed by a Big Foot has put the whole of his enlarged peda atremity into it now, wer, in order to save the old walls. Inspector of Buildings ISAAC I. MCKINLEY d just formally "inspected" the shell Patchwork is very righteous, so much of it is or

SPOTLETS.

"What handsome covers" said Goodword of his book-collecting friend. "Yes, but that is not what makes it hard to recover them," said the other, who and was in the adjoining building, when it The crime of imperfectly shoring up the was kind evough to lend his tressures. rs of an old building undergoing repairs the same in kind as the faulty walls Phil Armour, when he is crossing the Atlantic, i hich BUDDENSIECK permitted in his net interested to the sou' westers! mes, and for which he received condign She wears a fur collar 'way up to her note, And the fur comes 'most down To the bem of her gown; But the footprints she leaves in the cold Winter If there is guilty neglect anywhere in this ror let it also be punished. Laborers

Give the looker-on tipes At the thought of thin shees! e to work under dangerous conditions times, or else go hungry. But those Types, if they get angry, ought to "make up o subject poor workmen to such dangers these should be held to the severest Some Work and full play makes a dangerous

The contractor was at once arrested. He been engaged in contracting for many rs and has enjoyed a good reputation. justice be done, for the law should A lost boat race is like a clock pearing the bon

There is many a fly in the honey during the Sun Holland has signed the General Act of logs spectacular performance. Brussels Conference. The question at

"THE BABES IN THE WOOD."

at an end to the slave trade. Holland's All the scenery, costumes, singing and dance ing out was due to a commercial intering in "The nabes in the Wood," the new t. The Congo State to indemnify itself English pantomime that was presented for the the expenses which it would incur by first time in this city at Niblo's last night, are be used in a variety of ways with good effect. ng to stamp out this revolting traffic not worth the adaptically funny appearance of A pretty hassock can be made by taking an obin slaves wished to impose a tax on spirits George K. Fortescue and William A. Mestayer long pillow stuffed with hair and covering it mported into the Lower Congo. Holland as Cissy and liertic, the babes. Mr. Fortes, with the embroidery. To make an attractive on unrestrained by the dam of this gitimate buriesque. His every action was ac. the fireplace. Take the square and line it with curately copied from those of small children. At last, the little water-soaked kingdom irresistibly ludicrous. bowed her head to the sixteen powers Fortesone, a mammoth man, makes his apbe humane and civilized rather than mercesocks on his legs, his feet in "cute" simpers.

For each of like a portiere and can easily be pushed socks on his legs, his feet in "cute" simpers. To have held out would have exposed around his waist a pink sash, and upon his ocks on his legs, his feet in "cute" slippers. head a short, flaxen wig. Mestajer, whose work is far less convincing, and who spoils ing famous as the youngest problem composer his part by trying to force it, is clad as little in the world. She has a fine instinct for chess Lord Fauntleroy. Miss Louise Beaudet, that which has been cultivated by much practice Hass has suavely promised to clear off cunning little creature who always makes a and an hereditary talent for problem compos nit, is the nurse. Both of her "enlidren" ing. Her first problem, composed before she could have whisked her up in their arms and was eight, has been printed in about twenty swung her into the mindle of next week.

a fair show, he modestly requested several The circusing and washing of "the babes", America, indred thousand dollars more with which were greeted with peals of laughter. Casy to clean, and he has had his request ac- wouldn't have he nees washed, and Bertie lett a black mark where he performed his abiu-This means six months more of BEATTIE, tions; tions; they nowled when she had ber hair and, concomitantly, six months more of combed, and Bertle cried because he wanted dirty streets, in all probability. But the new socks. Fortescue was so thoroughly thought of seeing him disappear behind a serious that he won the house. I don't mind ught of seeing him disappear behind a serious that he won the house. nment of dirt at the expiration of that confessing that I made at land of the laughing in a disgracefully uprearious and untime is joyous and sustaining. The New Fork citizen is a patient and long-suffering vocative of hearty, whelesome laughter for controllable way. I have seen nothing so prosture, but even he draws the line at many a day. Every man and weman with culidren will roar at Fortescue, and every The pantomme itself is not typically English, because there are no puns about its constitu-tion, but is not the less enjoyable on that acunce two hundred and fifty dead Indians count, Some of the music is admirable, and as the result of a meeting of Government will be whistled in the streets before long. troops and hostiles. The Indians are dead Walter Staughter, Affred Ceiller, Edward Solomon, H. J. Leslie, Ivan Caryll, and Edward Jones have had a hand in the music. There redskin affliction is not assured by mingling are some excellent dances, gracefully and picturesquely executed; a dance of housean Indian has a right to his life, and it maids with which brooms is one of the prettishould not be taken in revenge. Might will est leatures of the entertainment; and in the to deliciously raythmic strains. The story of "Tue Bates in the Wood" is mixed up rather alarmingly with that of In a few days it will be known how much of a corner-stone in the future history of quence in this particular case. The scenery is vulgar millions and their place is filled among cland was the half hour in which WILLIAM gargeous, and the ballet of nymphs and rab-O'BRIEN and CHARLES STEWART PARNELL bits, the procession of Shakespearian heroes talked plain English to each other at the and heroises and the ballet of international insects are most creditable, the costumes being Hotel du Louvre. It is possible that some scheme may be devised by which PARNELL superlatively sumptuous.

PARNELL will doubtless be content. The opposition to him is because his wilful tomtoolery a far less creditable production unity, With Fortesche's wonderfully able Miss Clay says: hand seemed throttling Home Rule. Pare could be carried with success. It was this same Fortescae who years ago appeared at lowing heads: Women who have no training as a could be carried with success. It was this lowing heads: Women who have no training as a could be carried with success. It was this lowing heads: Women who have no training in other ways so as to take a pro-Harrigan and Harr's Tacatte in a production or learning in other ways so as to take a pro-called "The Two Awidis," Mr. Furtescue lession can, with ordinary application and called "The Two Awisis," Mr. Furtescue lession can, who oronary application from the paying Lousqueeze, Mr. Hart Hungry Yet, and Mr. Harrigan Pierre. The merit of his work farm. It is available for women with body in her backwoods costume and lone, the street of his work farm. It is available for women with body in her backwoods costume and lone, STEPNIAK, the Russian Nibilist, has ar rived in this country and will lecture on the in "The Babes" is its freedom from "gog- large or small means. For women black hair languag down on for should is. He is entitled to a hearing. Russin and resist the temptation.

> Museum of Natural History To-Morrow. The Museum of Natural History will be open

> > His Revenge.

[From the Pittaburg Halleton.]
The Chief Ciet K (aside)—ilis royat pibs ain't himself to-day. Kind of silent and sad. Won-der what's up?

to produce more than any notes or bonds with without due notice."

'What has hangened ?"
interest will bring, and the family can live on the control of the them yesterday. They like to know what der wnat's up?

can be so attractive as to compensate for Unregenerate Office Boy (sotto voce)-Guesa my little plan worked. Know'd it would when I fastened the typewriter's yailer hair on his overcoat last night. An' I'll do it every time he calls me a chump. The Harlem Democracy held a banquet

> Difference of Deatiny. (From the Philadelpiha Times.)

That gallant yachtsman, Lieut, HENN, and | marked. that delightful yachtswoman, Mrs. HENN, a sign men have no business with a woman's pocket, but a woman has with a man's.

this fair wife are most welcome, and if he can only bring about an international yacht THE WAYS OF WOMAN FAIR everybody will be grateful to America hasn't much doubt but that bright blue. Yachting is a delightful pas-Delight the Gentler Sex. It does look as if safety could never be anything but purely relative when a water- Livery for Maid Servants-Use for tank is set on fire, which incongruous acci-Chinese Squares-Plants Painted

Fads, Fashions and Fancies That

on Windows - Women

as Farmers.

A late whim of swelldom is to put the maid Another blast explodes in the Granita who opens the door into a sort of livery, like stones ever since the snowstorm would melt State's Republican ledge. William E. that of a man servant. Her dress is dark the neart of any one not a brute. CHANDLER stands horribly accused of be- green plainly braided, and the waist and raying a confiding rallway company's Yellow is a happy, sunny color for a bride. young woman who spent her Christ mas on the stormy Atlantic at the outset of a and no wonder his mouth watered over this mas on the stormy Atlantic at the outset of a cardistic example of the noble painter who together, as shown in our a the effect was very charming. in her trousseau a little frock of amber velvet with an edge of white ostrich feathers inside the hem and a front of white chiffon gold emthe skirt with knots of snowdrops tied with of the "Cherry Diamonds," and they are arrangement in front, one-half being of velvet their friends soluce the hours spent without with snowdrops and ribbons on the shoulder, the other half of chiffon caught in place with a Becket has rather a startling marine, the clasps that are twists of gold.

The Wellesley College cirls have been meaared, and the average watst measure of the 1,100 students was found to be 24.2 inches. Physicians say that this is too small for health which can now be jurchased so cheaply, can some bright-colored silk which harmonizes and it is years since I have seen anything so with the rest of the room. Allow the himing to come over the square and then finish with gold braid. This can then be fastened to the brass

> Miss Lilian Baird, aged nine years, is become chess columns in England, Germany and

A plant in front of a window is never in eagerly scanned the details of a police arrest, poor taste, but plant "effects" are something while the little Wizard was busy reading an rather new. A houseke per in Baltimore. wishing window room probably and less bother with watering-pota conceived an improvement on nature and painted, realistically, a plant and pot on the window pane of her second-story "front." If that woman land they go through it in a nice, comfortable way the normal second-story "front." If that woman land they go through it in a nice, comfortable way the normal second-story "Mr. R. S. Wilson, an English gentlement on the crusade in favor of the pillion. An eye-witness thus describes an experiment on Mr. Wilson's farm:

"Mr. R. S. Wilson, an English gentlement of the pillion. An eye-witness thus describes an experiment on Mr. Wilson's farm:

"Mr. R. S. Wilson, an English gentlement of the crusade in favor of the pillion. An eye-witness thus describes an experiment on Mr. Wilson's farm:

tells a sad story of some woman's hardships in few and simple words. Almost despairing under her burden of labor, some poor seamstress penned these words, hoping that they might reach some tender-hearted person: "Remember this yest was made for 25 cents." Like a magician's wand these words conjure up a seeking politicians. Certain gentlemen conpoorly jurnished room, a sewing machine unher the only window, and a patient, tired came prominently identified with the woman sewing into the night for that pittance which shall keep her body and soul together. These are the things that in carelesaness one does not care to remember, but now and then the truth, sudden and unexpected, comes the select and favored few by collars of goice gimp and chemilie knitted together with bright ribbons.

gery," Mr. Mestaver having teen unable to thrown upon their own resources, with from under a hoge somerero, and her superb ALAN DALK. collected to talse, it is an economical shift safe business investment. If the means to be invested are small a judeious choice of hand as to location or access to harket, trequality of the soil for the purpose wanted, &c. should be considered, with a view to small fruits, such as strawberries, backberries, the content of the small strains and the purpose wanted as the considered, with a view to small fruits, such as strawberries, backberries, the content of the first won her the hearty plaudits will be some tune, perhaps, before the allowe account proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allowe account proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allowe account proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allowe account proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allowers of many that the period and it is some tune, perhaps, before the allower content proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allower content proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allower content proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allower content proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allower content proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allower content proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allower content proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allower content proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allower content proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allower content proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allower content proves. It will be some tune, perhaps, before the allower content proves. free to the public to-morrow. An idustrated lecture upon the "Physical Geography and scenery of New York State, the initial and and faspherries, dwarf fruits and grapes, and the fruits, such as strawberries, theckberries, see was even more charming toan in her cenery of New York State, the highlands and hands with white delivered at 450 P. M. of the most saintie vegetables, one or two cows, but Albert S. Bickmore. No tickets are re-confedent and ducks. Mik and cream principles enickens and oneks. Milk and cream pring more to sell than to make into butter. Eggs are more profitable to sell than to raise chickens. Money invested in two or three actes, can with industry and care, be made the fat of the land with very little money

MUSICAL NOTE.

outlay.

The concert given last evening at Chickering Hall by the pupils of 1. M. Lesnier, was applauded by a sympathetic audience. The singing of Mr. Albert Pardo, who possesses a "I can't imagine why men's pockets are so tine, ringing tenor voice, and Miss Tirran easy to get at and women is so hard," he re- Hamlen, the contraite, was especially appreclated.

MONELL'S TEXTHING CORDIAL is a benefit to ba-

Polks who frequent the Grand Central Depot

have cause for rejoicing. A cross-walk is to be laid opposite the Forty-second street side of the Grand Union Hotel. There will be greater There is nothing that moves me more than Old Exercise. the chimes that herald in the New Year.

night in the "Fire Song," in memory of the Women Can Then Dispense with Gifts for All Those Absent from Side-Saddles, treated. The poor brasis do have to work How Wives and Daughters Are Snugly Bestowed Behind Husbands and Fathers.

The real harbinger of the New Year is the The question as to whether women festive calendar. Three useful guides float in should or should not ride astride is a upon one like leaves in Autumn, and are very much vexed one. It has been many nearly as brilliant in point of color. Some of them are expensive, too, costing the publishers times discussed in newspapers and magazines, and there is a pro-pect that opinion will early be decided in regard to the I was at the Berkeley Lyceum last night to matter, says the Chicago News.

will be the one which the public will look for with the greatest interest to estimate it from To those who have clung to the belief the standpoint of "Bean Brummel." Richard that a side-saddle is a necessity to a the Third Mansfield has liked his pockets with woman who rides, and that it is immedgold from that brilliant play. I hope if Fitch est for her to ride like a man, the ancreates another gold-mine for him he will senouncement that pillion-riding has been revived will be a welcome one. For with pillion-riding we return to the very In at Durand Ruel's the other day I saw pillion-riding we return to the very quintessence in riding. It is a mode of carriage that flourished when the mere idea of a woman seated astride of a horse would have been considered heathenish and grossly immoral. In those days hus-band and wife or brother and sister rode Roswell D. Sawyer looking with the frankest covetousness at the stunning Rembrandt there, "David and Saul." Sawyer has got an exceedingly choice collection of . Old Masters," together, as shown in our sketch, and Pillions are all made on the same principle—a cushion covered with buckskin and quilted, with a handle at the back, which can be put up or down, working settled in its new quarters in the Pullizer Building. There will be an opening reception on New Year's Day, for which a large number I often meet Henry Neagle at the Fellowis, besides, a small footboard suspended by leather straps. The subjoined gketches might convey the impression that this an-cient method of riding is not safe; but craft. He is always the same genial fellow and is never without something interesting to tell. He is one of the busy newspaper men, but such an impression does the pillion an That was a funny and interesting sight I be-her second-story "front." If that woman ian't watched she'll be a encilling a boiled dinner at home. It is not quote as unusual a thing as it was, bowever, to see a woman intently progeny on "effects."

A few words written on the under side of a law words written on the side of a law words write a law words writt young farmer duly donned an old cocked hat and buckled on the belt. He was soon in the saddle and rode up to the 'uppingpagne-making process introduced here some time ago, which threatened to revolutionize the manufacture of the sparkling beverage.

as in many would-be gigantic fortune-making stone, where a young lady mounted behind him in orthodox fashion. It was a picturesque sight, and made one's in Hearned from two or three of my friends of agin cion wander to bygone times. The some sharp practice on the part of the package. some sharp practice on the part of the package, group and chemilic knitted together with bright ribbons.

Some sharp practice on the part of the package, sharp practice on the package, sharp practice on the package, sharp practice of The performance is comparatively free from the most successful farmers in that portion of inquire of a conor if he had paid for sending round the young farmer's waist. The slame and knockaboutiveness, though it makes the State. In a recent state, contributed to his present, and in this way the drivers pocknockaboutiveness, though it makes the State. In a recent state, contributed to his present, and in this way the drivers pocknockaboutiveness, though it makes the State. In a recent state, contributed to his present, and in this way the drivers pocknockaboutiveness, though it makes the most successful farmers in that portion of inquire of a conor if he had paid for sending round the young farmer's waist. The host successful farmers in that portion of inquire of a conor if he had paid for sending round the young farmer's waist. The host successful farmer's waist.

That this method of rading is reason skill with the ride won her the hearty plaunis ably wife the above account proves, will be some time, bothers, before cago parks, if our riders were to sally forth mounted on stout horses, with their ways or daughters snugly bestowed upon wite, Ind., calls Hond's barsajarille, and with good reason. Scrofula, in the form of white swellings and sores, confined him to his bed for ' years, and hept him an invalid for 11 long years. His sufferings were interne, he feared he never should get we L. But he read of cures by Hood's lie-I never hear you say anything about your father and mother.

King

Sie-Pray don't sleak of them. They both came from very low families. Sarsaparilla, and decided to try this medicine. He call in brook ya. was shou gratified to ace the sares decrease, and to make a long atory short, as the result of taking Hood's Narsaparilla faithfully he has been audrely cured of scofuls and given good beaith. Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists. $1. six for $5. Prepared by C. I. HOOD & CO., Lowell, Mana. 100 DOSES ONE DOLLAR

RIDING, CHRISTMAS PARTY, HER GIFT OF SECOND SIGHT.

A Movement on Foot to Revive This The "Evening World" Makes 2.000 More Poor Children Happy.

the Trees on Christmas Day.

Remainder of the Fund Expended and Distributed at Clarendon Hall.

Clarendon Hall witnessed the last scene in its readers, hundreds of whom contributed to the Christman Tree Fund of 1890.

It had come to the notice of the Eventso World that there had been some children holding tickets for one or another of the six Christmas Tree Festivals who had failed to get their gifts from the bounty of the tig and not explain it any other way. My eyes are httle St. Nicks, and a plan was quick y de- shut, but they seem to see right through my vised and executed by which these little ones forchead. I see them not as I see with my should receive the Chrisimas gifts intended eyes open, but as if I looked through a nar-

Clarendon Hall was placed at the disposal of Manager George M. Wood, and Saturday last the EVENING WORLD printed a special invitation to those children who had arrived too late on Christmas morning at the regular thristmas was over my mother begged her to give festivals, or had been ill or unable to attend us a test, for some other reason, to come to Clarendon ... Look and try to see something that con-Hall Tuesday, Dec. 30, between 12 and 2 cerns us," she said. o'clock. There, on presentation of the tickets | The woman covered her eyes, bent her issued to them last week, whether for the Har- head forward, and finally said: "I see an lem Theatre, American Institute, Grand Opera-with children for the two hours named in the nvitation, and every one of them went away with a heart full of hap; luess and arms full of Christmas joys.

Miss Marguerite St. John, who managed the Grand Opera-House party Christmas Day, and have been given her by the neighbors, for Dr. Charlotte Woolier, who so nicely consucted they had even been forgotten by the family, and were only remembered when she mentioned them. Harlem Theatre, volunteered to superintend this second distribution, and they gathered about them a bevy of charming young women, including Mrs.

Can you find things that are lost?

Can you find things that are lost?

asked my mother. "May be you can tell us who stole Simon's $100."

The woman drew a long, quiet breath, Sarony Lambert, Misses Alice E. Ives, Marlin Homan, Mainte Smith and Katie Sullivan; Mrs. John Cook, Dr. and Mrs. T. A. King Mrs. Lillian Crenore, Mrs. E. B. Sargeant and Mrs. Julia Le Coultre. Messrs. L. and W. Escobar also assisted.

There was left a small balance in The Evrance Wester Brown of Christmas-Tree Fund, and with it was gone. You go down a path more than lifty steps, then you come to the barn. No, you do not stop there. Oh, here it is, you stop. I think it is a chicken house. Here is a nest, and in the straw lies the money. Father had been lighting his lantern as she spoke, and had it ready as she finished, and hurried down to the hen-house—we of clothing had arrived from good. of clothing had arrived from good children racing after him. Sure enough, friends of this noble charity, and there in a deserted nest, among broken and from these were made up about two hundred addled eggs, lay the roll of bills. with a binge, the whole having attached a cover with large flaps made of drab kerseymere to keep the lady's dress from the horse's side. The cover is also often quilted and bound with ornamental braid. There are to got together in Clarendon Hall the place seemed like Santa Claus's storehouse. Long before 12 o'clock little boys and girls had begun to gather in Thirteenth street, and each held tightly the precious ticket of admischildren marched in, and for two hours there procession marched in single file around the laden tables, passing out again with their hands full of gitts. More than 2,000 children came-many of whom had no tickets. Those who had tickets were admitted first, and after them, to make sure that no child should be forgotten and dis appointed, those who had no tickets were admitted, and no child went away empty handed It was a giorious conclusion to THE EVEN-ING WORLD'S splendid Christmas work. Anna Nissen, of Brooklyn, has sent $2 to by " Three Little Brothers " was received.

WORLDLINGS.

One of Chicago's pretty heiresses is Miss Helen Drake, daughter of John B. Drake. She is a very stylish blonde, with a dimpled face and a brilliant an interested church worker as well.

Grace Church has an endowment of $250,000, and its property is worth close to $2,000,000. Its in ome from pew rents reaches about $100,000 a year One of the most expensive of drugs is Hom-Atro pius Hydrobromate, a preparation of balladonna. It is worth about $2,100 a pound, or 30 cents a grain, and is used in some diseases of the eye. As a rule few Congressmen drink before noon and it is usual y as late as 4 o'clock in the after noon that the drinking of the day begins in earnest. Very few Congressmen drink wine except at big

There are believed to be nearly 50,000 Christian Scientists in the nation, about 10,000 of whom live in New York City and Brooklyn.

VACRANT VERSES.

Where the Explorer's Sand Needed.

"Wou'd you dare explore an unknown land Where savage tribes hold sway, Cross deserts wide of burning sand And jungles where wild beasts pray?"

"Oh, yes, I would so to the wide world's end And through trackiess jungles roam, But I wouldn't have sand, I lear, to defend Myself on arriving nome," — Cape Cal Rem Sundown.

Bright sets the sun across the slumbering sea, touching with gold the ripples every one. Gilding the said-that flap so learly.

Gilding the said-that flap so learly.

And hard I the winds and waters have begun To breathe their serenade, fair moon to these—
To went by placed same now day is done.

And as thy cloudy resement we can sea. In tour appearing, like a maiden won, While o'er the world of waters has and free Bright sets the sun.

— Arthur L. Silman, in The Academy.

The Little Wife at Home. The dear little wife at home, John, with ever so much to do.
Stitches to set and battes to pet, And a many thoughts of your.
The beautiful household fairly, Fulling your household with fight, to cheerly home to-day, John, too cheerly home to-night.

For though you are work and weary.
You need to be cross and curt.
There are words like darks to gentle hearts,
There are looks that wound and turi.
With the key in the latch at home, John,
Drop the trouble of tof sight.
To the little wise who to waiting.
Go theen y home to-right. - Exchange.

Saved. (Prom the Clothfer if Furnisher. 1 Strawber-I put on a silk hat and a sack coat the other night and never thought of the mistake until I had got half a mile from home. Singerly—And then I suppose you had to go Singerly—And then I suppose you had to go way tack to change V.

Hood's Strawber—No. Fortunately I had to make a Marvellous Power Accredited to an

She Described Dead Relatives and Found Post Articles.

Ohio Woman.

Some forty years ago, in Northeastern Ohio, before the time of railroads and hotels, says a writer in the Globe Democrat, a woman and her husband came through that section, travelling to the West. They stopped at my father's farm and stayed over night, and in the course of the evening's conversation it came out that the the glorious play of Santa Claus produced by Wife, a fresh-faced countrywoman, pos-THE EVENING WORLD as the trusted agent of sessed the gift called by the Scotch second sight, and which is now generally called clairvoyance. She did not go into a trance to see things

> "I just put my hand before my eyes and look through my head," said she. "I canrow opening and could only see one object at a time, but that very plainly." Her gift was destined to be of profit to my father's family, for before the evening

House, Clarendon Hall, Pythagoras Hall or Cooper Hall Christmas parties, they should receive a substantial reminder of Kris Kringle's goodness.

And yesterday Clarendon Hall was thronged her throat; it is muffled up."

And so she continued, giving an accurate description of my grandparents, one of whom had died three years before and the other within a few months, and describing the dress they most commonly wore down to the minutest details, which could not tioned them.

and still, with covered eyes, said: "It was not stolen, I think."
"I'm sure it was," said father; "I know right where I put it, and when I looked for it it was gone."

it it was gone.

"I had it in my pocket when I was try ing to set that pesky yellow hen," said father, "and she struggled and fought so that I must have dropped it out in the When we got back to the house the woma was chatting pleasantly with mother. She would take nothing for her services saying that the gift was from God, and if she were and held tightly the precious ticket of admission to the treasure-house.

They were orderly boys and girls and the two polloemen detailed for duty there had very little to do. When the doors were opened the little to do. When the doors were opened the tests she gave in finding lost articles and telling the whereabouts of those absent.

RELICS OF GEN. GRANT.

Silver and Gold Boxes and Glasswar in the Washington Museum. The gold articles in the Grant collection would fill a peck measure, and every city would fill a peck measure, and every city seems to have given Grant a gold box containing the paper in which the freedom of the town was presented to him, says the Pittsburg Dispatch. The box which he received at Ayr, Scot-land, is as big as a eight box, and is of solid gold. The city of Glasgow gave him a still land, is as big as a eigar box, and is of solid gold. The city of Glasgow gave him a still bigger one, beautifully chased, and the gold box which he received from the city of London is a wonder of artistic workmanship, bearing the engraving of the capital on one side and the London Guildhall on the other.

Then there is a wonderfully heautiful appetite comes from no disorder of her.

don is a wonder of artistic workmanship, bearing the engraving of the capital on one side and the London Guildhall on the other. Then there is a wonderfully beautiful surrender was signed of solid gold, and a solid gold invitation card as big as a poetal card and about four times as thick, which was sent to Grant in a solid silver cavelope, inviting him to a masked ball at San Francisco.

silver articles, but they contain many fine pieces of chima and cut glass. The punch bowl is as big as a half bushel. Some of the plates were given by Lafayette to Mrs. Washington, and the muscum has lately received from the family of Lewis Washingion a number of autograph letters which have never been published.

Lamb and the Burglar. Lamb was awakened early one Christmas going down to that apartment found a burglar doing his spoons up in a bundle, "Why d-do you s-s-st-teal?" he asked.

"Because I am starving," returned the housebreaker, sullenly, "Are y-you re-re-aily ver-very h-h-hung-hung-gug-gery-hungry?" asked Lamb. "Very," replied the burglar, turning away. "Pup-pup-poor fuf-fuf-fellow!" said the

"h-here's a l-l-leg of L-L-Lamb for y-you."

And so saying, with a dexterous movement of his right leg he ejected the ma-rauder into the street, and locating the door securely went back to bed. The burglar confessed afterwards that he didn't see the joke for six weeks.

A Steady Descant,

Biffer-Did you hear, Bootaby, that our good friend Prisner had been appointed a consul by Mr. Harrison ? Boot by-1s that so? Poor Pilsner! How steamly he has gone down hill!

Boottoy-nie began life as a ditch-digger, then be tecame a book-agent, then a lecturer, then a pointetan, and now he is an officeholder under Harrison. A Little Envious.

Miss de Smith-Congratulate me, my dear Cara. Sr Ponsonby de Roue bas asked for my hand and i have accepted him.

[From the Chicago Times.]

Miss Overage—I congraduate you heartily my love, on your prospect of soon becoming lady.

For the Sleepless. I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Greene's Nor

In Detroit.

[From the Chicage Times.]

Thomas — Ella, don't, for heaven's sake, wrap that heavy veil around your face. You have also recommended the Nervura to many of my friends, who have been much benefited by its my friends, who have been much benefited by its MRs. G. H. HILL. 11 Union st., Concord, N. H.

ZER BUILDING

If there is any money in the keeping of a RES-TAURANT AND CAFE in a good location there is certainly a fortune for the man who accepts the opportunity offered by the Pulitzer Building.

In itself THE WORLD'S New Home has the population of a good-sized town, and the fresh air and cheerful, inspiring outlook give good appetites. Then, the stream of passers-by and the thousands of prosperous business and professional men in the vicinity assure an enormous and constant

The Superintendent will show the rooms and give terms. He can be seen every day in room 8, first floor.

TWO OR THREE MORE OFFICES REMAIN TO BE LET.

patronage.

A GIRL'S STRANGE APPETITE

The Queer Hankering of a Sturdy Buffalo Servant to Est Soap. A servant girl, by name Louisa Bankburr, the employ of Reese R. McMahan, of this city, says a Buffalo correspondent, has developed a most singular taste for eating sonp, of which she has been known to levour nearly a pound a day. The family for some time past were much puzzled to account for the way in which the soap disappeared from the boxes, and it was not until the girl was seen eating a cake with all the relish in the world that it occurred to them to ascribe the disappear-ance to her.

some months.

some months, has never disagreed with her, but Dr. McMahan says that it has affected her appetite so that she does not care to est much beside soap.

At first she preferred the milder kind of

on. She is a great favorite in society and eight case of pure gold from the King of stomach, but is probably a cultivated idio-

The Washington relies have only a few she would die without it.

expense of placing her in an inebriate asylum if her family, who reside in Tonsanda, will consent.

A certain pallor and a purplish discolors-tion of the lips and corners of the nose and nails are the only perceptible effects of the diet, and her digestion, as far as can be gathered from Louisa herself, remains unmorning by a noise in his kitchen, and on impaired, while she has actually gained learly twenty pounds in the last six i or since she began to eat soap.

NOT SURE OF HIS MEMORY.

A Little Weather Bluff that Worked Very Successfully. Last Winter, as everybody ought to recember, was Summer all Winter in this locality, and snow enough to run a cutter on fell only once, says the Detroit Free Press. There was no cold weather and the fish-worms were crawling over the sidewalks after the warm rains of midwinter. Yesterday the subject of the weather came up to be discussed by a group in the City Hall, and one of them observed: "Well I like this weather. No last Winter weather for me "What siled last Winter !" asked a

It was no Winter at all." "What! Why, sir, it was the severest Winter we have had for many years. It is curious how people forget."
"Last Winter was extremely mild," persisted the first. "It was extremely severe," repeated the second. "See here, I keep a memorandum of the weather. Let us turn back. Here it is. From Dec. 1 to 25, 3 degrees below sero, with steady sleighing. Snow then

14. From Dec. 1 to 25, 3 degrees below zero, with steady sleighing. Snow then went off. For six days it was 7 degrees below. Then had twenty-two days more of sleighing. What do you think or that?"

"Well, by George!" gasped the other; "but that shows how treacherons memory is! You just keep quiet and !"! eatch some tellow on that. It must have been ten or twelve years ago I was thinking of!"

The memorandum was one made and The memorandum was one made and stuffed to order.

A Common Case. | From the Indianapolis Journal.

Wickwire-There never were so many chances as now to get a good income out of a small fortune, Yabsley-What I'd like is to get a good fortune out of a small income,